TRANSFORMATION

The high point of our Christian faith and the most holy day in the Church year is celebrated today. “[I]f Christ has not been raised, then empty [too] is our preaching; empty, too, your faith” says Saint Paul (1 Corinthians 15:14). It is not easy for us to imagine the reality of Christ’s passion and then the great glory of Easter. Even artists have difficulties portraying the risen Jesus. The glorified, risen Jesus seems beyond even the greatest artistic imagination. He must have looked different in some ways, as his followers fail to recognize him at first, even the ones who know him best, and Jesus has to assure them that he is not a ghost. He invites the skeptical Thomas to touch his wounds, he appears and eats breakfast with Peter and six others on the lake shore and - in the intimacy of a shared meal at Emmaus - two disciples realize who he is as he takes bread, blesses and breaks it, and gives it to them. They “see” him by his actions. We receive this same Jesus as the bread blessed and broken at every Eucharist, and this is not just a symbol: the Lord truly gives himself to us. Dorothy Day found that we know the Lord and each other in the breaking of the bread, and this puts an end to our loneliness. She discovered this faith as an adult, becoming one of the last century’s greatest champions of the poor, forsaken, hungry, and homeless. True faith, like Dorothy Day’s, transforms us. Some have a sudden conversion, while for others it is a slower process that unfolds over time. If we come to know the truth of Easter it will overflow from our own life into those around us.

Living Stewardship Now

We can only put our skills and time to work for God if we are nourished by Jesus himself, who will sustain us in our efforts. Decide to receive the Eucharist on another day of the week in addition to Sundays.

TRANSFORMACIÓN

El punto culminante de nuestra fe cristiana y la fiesta más importante de todo el año de la Iglesia se celebra hoy. “Si Cristo no resucitó, nuestra predicación es vana, y la fe de ustedes es vana”, dice san Pablo (1 Corintios 15:14). No nos es fácil imaginarnos la realidad de la pasión de Cristo y después su Pascua gloriosa. Aun los artistas encuentran dificultad en representar a Jesús resucitado. Jesús glorioso y resucitado parece trascender las más artísticas de las imaginaciones. El Señor Jesús tuvo que haber lucido diferente de alguna manera, ya que sus discípulos no pudieron reconocerlo enseguida, ni siquiera los que lo conocían mejor, a quienes Jesús tuvo que asegurarles que no era un fantasma. Invita al escéptico Tomás a que toque sus llagas, se aparece y come el desayuno con Pedro y otros seis junto al lago y, en la intimidad de una comida en Emaús, dos de los discípulos se dan cuenta de quién es él cuando toma el pan, lo bendice, lo parte y se los ofrece. “Ven” a Jesús por su acción. Nosotros recibimos al mismo Jesús en el pan que se bendice y se parte en cada Eucaristía, y esto no es sólo un símbolo, sino que el Señor se nos entrega verdaderamente. Dorothy Day se dio cuenta que conocemos a Dios y a los demás al partir el pan y que este hecho acaba con nuestra soledad. Después de descubrir la fe en su edad adulta, Day se convirtió en una de las más grandes campeonas del siglo pasado en favor de los pobres, los abandonados, los hambrientos y los vagabundos. La verdadera fe, como la de Dorothy Day, nos transforma. Algunos experimentan una conversión súbita, mientras que para otros es un proceso más lento que se va desarrollando en el transcurso del tiempo. Si llegamos a conocer la verdad de la Pascua, ella emanará y se desbordará de nuestra propia vida llegando a todos los que nos rodean.

La Corresponsabilidad Viva Ahora

Podemos poner nuestras habilidades y nuestro tiempo para la obra de Dios sólo cuando nos dejamos alimentar por el mismo Jesús. Él es quien sustenta nuestros esfuerzos. Haz la decisión de recibir la Eucaristía otro día, además del domingo.

Dear Parishioners,

Like the previous years, we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord on this Easter. For us Christians, this is an important event to remember with great jubilee. Lent was a moment of fasting, prayer and doing charitable works. Now we celebrate with great jubilee the Resurrection of the Lord, our God who has triumphed over death. He is living and walking with his people and constantly shows us that we are not alone. Jesus lives and continues to live forever. I wish you all A Happy

Resurrection of the Lord and a Happy Easter. May the Risen Christ bring us joy and encourage our lives. The Risen Lord asks us to live with deep joy and gratitude for all the gifts we have received. That this great feast of Easter be a feast of peace and hope for all of you and your loved ones. Each year we depend on your generous Easter donation. Please allow me to express my sincere gratitude for your continued support of our parish. Happy Easter!

Muy Queridos Feligreses,

Al igual que todos los años, celebramos en este año las pascuas de Resurrección. Para nosotros los cristianos, es un jubilo recordar este gran acontecimiento. Porque después de haber celebrado nuestra cuaresma, es un momento de recogimiento, de oración y de obras caritativas. Ahora celebramos con júbilo la Resurrección del Señor, nuestro Dios ha triunfado, sobre la muerte. Él está vivo y camina con su pueblo, no estamos solos. Jesús vive y vive para siempre. A todos les deseo una Feliz Pascua de Resurrección, que Cristo resucitado, aliente nuestras vidas. El Señor resucitado nos pide vivir con profunda alegría y con gratitud por todos los dones recibidos. Que la fiesta de Pascua sea una fiesta de paz y esperanza para todos nosotros y todos sus seres queridos. Cada año dependemos mucho de su generosidad en la Pascua/Semana Santa. Gracias por toda su ayuda con el mantenimiento de la vida de la parroquia de St. Jarlath. ¡Felices Pascuas de Resurrección!

Sincerely/Sinceramente,
Rev. Enrique Ballesteros
