EVERYDAY HEROES

In today's first reading, the Jews of Antioch reject the preaching of Paul and Barnabas, and the two apostles leave to take their message to other places. They turn from the people of the Old Covenant, their fellow Jews, to invite the Gentiles in the rest of the world to become people of the New Covenant. This is a turning point for the first Christians. The apostles felt compelled by their experiences of the risen Jesus to take his Good News as far as they could. Their intense love of the Lord and their desire to do God's will sent them on journeys throughout the lands bordering the Mediterranean Sea. They were jeered at, flogged, cursed, imprisoned, and shipwrecked. Some, including Peter and Paul, met a martyr's death. "That was then," you might say, "and this is now. I won't ever be martyred." Maybe, but martyrdom is not necessarily physical death; the root meaning of the word is "to witness." Think of the elderly man caring for his wife with Alzheimer's, the parents of an autistic child, the single mother whose teenage son is disabled. These are all martyrs in the sense that they put another's good before their own. They lay down their life daily for someone other than themselves. To a greater or lesser extent, this kind of martyrdom—others before self—is intended to be a thread running through the lives of all of us. If we so choose, every kindness, every good word, every thoughtful deed can reflect our love of God to others. God does not demand this of us, but we can demand it of ourselves. From all that God gives us, let us give back in kind.

Living Stewardship Now

If you know someone who is a full-time caregiver, offer to provide them with a "time out" for a few hours so they can go to church,

HÉROES DE TODOS LOS DÍAS

En la primera lectura de hoy los judíos de Antioquía rechazan la prédica de Pablo y Bernabé, y los dos apóstoles se van a llevar su mensaje a otros lugares. Ellos se alejan del pueblo de la Antigua Alianza, sus compatriotas judíos, para invitar a los paganos del resto del mundo a que vengan a formar parte del pueblo de la Nueva Alianza. Éste es un momento crucial para los primeros cristianos. Después de sus experiencias con Jesús resucitado, los apóstoles se sintieron obligados a llevar la Buena Nueva de su Maestro tan lejos como les fuera posible. El intenso amor por su Señor y su deseo de hacer la voluntad de Dios los llevaría por las tierras en las riberas del Mediterráneo. Sufrieron burlas, azotes, maldiciones, encarcelamientos y naufragios.

Algunos, incluso Pedro y Pablo, murieron mártires. Podrías decir: "Eso fue entonces, pero hoy es otra cosa. Nunca moriré mártir". Puede que no, pero el martirio no se trata necesariamente de una muerte física; la raíz de la palabra significa "dar testimonio". Piensa en el anciano que cuida a su esposa con Alzheimer, los padres de un niño autista, la madre soltera cuyo hijo está discapacitado. Todas estas personas son mártires en cierto sentido, porque han puesto el bienestar de otros por encima del suyo propio. Ellas dan su vida diariamente por otras personas. En mayor o menor grado, esta clase de martirio—el de poner a otros antes que uno—es la fibra que debe predominar en la vida de cada uno de nosotros. Cada acto de gentileza, cada palabra bondadosa, cada atención para con los demás, puede reflejar el amor de Dios a esas personas. Es decisión nuestra. Dios no exige eso de nosotros, pero nosotros podemos exigirnoslo. Demos de corazón y desinteresadamente de todo lo que Dios primero nos ha dado.

La Corresponsabilidad Viva Ahora

Si conoces a alguien que cuida de otra persona las veinticuatro horas del día, ofrécele un "descansito" por unas horas, para que pueda ir a la iglesia, hacer algunos mandados o visitar a una persona amiga.

OUR PRAYER
FOR ALL MOTHERS

- Catholics striving for Holiness -

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Dios de Amor, así como una madre da vida y alimenta a sus hijos, vela tú por tú Iglesia. Bendice estas mujeres para que sean fortalecidas como madres cristianas. Deja que el ejemplo de su fé y amor brille por lo alto. Concede que nosotros sus hijos e hijas les honremos siempre con un profundo espíritu de respeto. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo nuestro Señor.
